

FROM OLD TO NEW

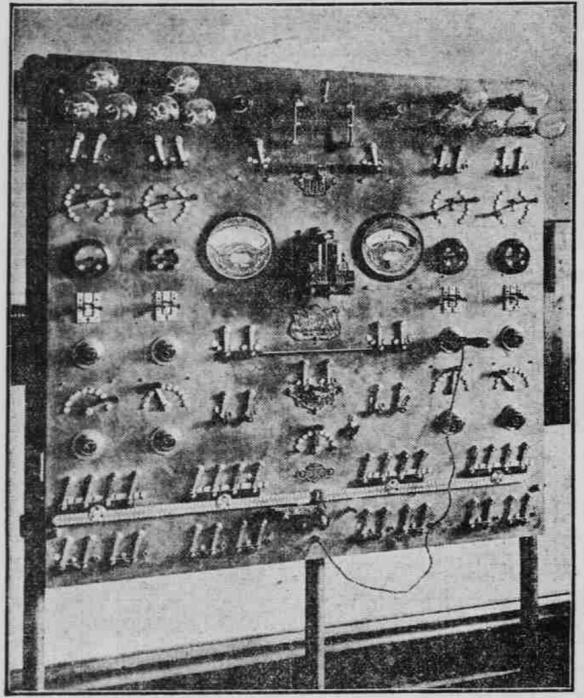

Entire Change in Machinery of Fire Alarm System. Switchboard and Old Style Batteries Are Displaced.

A new switchboard and a set of storage batteries have just been installed in the fire department with which to operate the Gamewell fire alarm system. The new equipment displaces 449 old-style batteries, which were expensive to maintain. The new equipment will make a saving in operating costs which in thirteen months will equal the cost of installing.

J. C. Mohler, secretary of the state board of agriculture, is out with an alibi. He denies the signature attached to the letter which accompanied the picture of Mrs. Galt taken at the age of six months, and to go further he produces the man who wrote the letter, and in explanation for joining the "I Didn't Say It Club," says he has no desire to get in bad with the national administration.

Imagine how a carman feels when the statistics which medical journals print, and the statements which doctors make are true, there are ten times as many diseased persons in the world as there are persons living in it.

ed with the Edison company's feed wires. They are in two series, one of which is being charged while the other is being used. The cost of keeping these cells charged is only $20 a year and the strength is constant. The upkeep cost of the old battery system was $623 per year at present prices for copper and zinc, and vitrol and paraffin oil, and there was a constant deterioration in strength, making it necessary for them to be renewed

Charles A. Moore Will Represent the American Legion. Headquarters for the American Legion, an organization for the purpose of listing and classifying available men for the army or navy, has been opened in Topeka. Charles A. Moore, who has offices in the New England building, was recently appointed an advisory member of the Legion and will have charge of the work in this section of the state. There are only 300 advisory members and they are scattered throughout the United States.

The United States government has no record of the present addresses and qualifications of its honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines, nor has it information of available men trained in the various occupations essential to the conduct of modern war. It is for this reason the American Legion, organized in New York with such men as Theodore Roosevelt, William H. Taft, Elihu Root, Jacob M. Dickinson and Henry L. Stimson as members of the council, and as soon as Mr. Moore gets the credentials and necessary application papers he will start to work getting available men lined up for Uncle Sam. In this manner it is expected that a citizen reserve of great strength will be built up in this country.

Free Dental Work. The Kansas state board of dental examiners will be in session at the National hotel November 30 and December 1 and 2.
